The breeding season is at hand and the farmers are called upon to select a stallion to mate with their mares. This requires some thought, it must be borne in mind, by the breeder, just the kind of stock he wants to breed, if it is the heavier breeds, that too high an estimate of mere weight, should not be the only quality, in fact, this is so generally sought for that some feel compelled to cater to this demand, and so keep their stallions very fat, to the injury of the animal and the disappointment often of the keeper, in whose hands such a horse is very apt to do badly. Weight, to a certain limit, is of course essential in a draft-horse, but there are other desirable qualities which should not be considered secondary to weight. sirable qualities which should not Spirit, form and style are not to be disregarded in a stallion to be used for breeding a superior class of work horses. Some have the idea that in raising herses for use in heavy teaming, style and spirit are not important, but let them offer for sale horses of this kind, along with those having the qualities named, and the readiness with which the latter sell, and the higher prices they bring, will show them their mistake. These qualifications should always be looked to, but whether breeding for draft,

Death of a Noted Cow. The first pure-bred Hereford ow ever brought to Colorado recently died on the Powers ranch near Caddos, at the advanced age of twenty years and one month. She was Gentle 12th, bred by Fredrick W. Stone, of Guelph, Canada, and imported by the late John W. Powers, of Las Animas, in 1870, and was the foundation of one of the largest and finest herds of pure bred cattle in the west. She leaves family of direct descendants numbering 287 head, of which 18 are her own produce sixteen bulls and two heifers. She was probably the most profitable cow ever brought to the state. - [Denver Field and Farm.

Treat the horse kindly and he will obey you. There is scarcely any other animal in the world so ntelligent as the horse, and certainly no other animal so valuable to man. It is safe to say that if you make the horse understand what you desire him to do he will do it if possible. There need never be a balky horse if he could be made to understand what was wanted of him. When he has once peen spoiled and contracted the habit of balking, he can be as stubborn as any other animal, yes, as tobborn even as man. Whatever nimal a man may be called upon to handle, he will yield more read-ily to kindness than to force.

I know the great capabilities of your place as a fruit ranch. In five years after planting, that land in olives would yield fully $300 per acre in oil, and will increase year after year until its annual yield will exceed $500. JOHN C. GRAY, Dist. Att'y.

This section of Butte County is one of the best in California for fruit cule. Such land as this, if set out to fruits, would, at the end of three years tire. Such land as this, it set out to trints, would, at the end of three years, it is estimated, be worth at least $500 per acre. At this rate, twenty acres in fruit within three years would be worth $10,000. The managers will take charge of the setting out of fruit trees for purchasers of land, and at the actual cost of doing the same.

The land is now for sale in tracts to suit at $100 per acre, on easy terms—one-third cash; balance in one, two and three years at eight per cent.

THE people of Carson are still trongly of the opinion that they have a veritable bonanza in the hills north of the town. The Tribune has, for many years, been advising prospectors to give more atlittle coyotying, no work of any consequence has been done. Boring for ledges from the surface has never been adopted by miners in this state, though underground the diamond drill has been known to tell what was in the ground long before the pick un overed it. If the diamond drill could do such good work underground there would seem to be no reason why it would not be made to work as effectually from the surface. Hawkins & McLaughlin, with a simple well-boring apparatus, have proven that ledges can be tapped at a depth of several bundred feet, and enough of the ore brought to the surface to get an as-ay from. Such being the case, it is fair to presume that more of that style of prospecting for gold and silver will be done hereafter; and as it is very much cheaper than sinking shafts it commends itself to the prospector and miner with limited capital.

MANY of the newspapers throughout Nevada have commented upon the sudden change of political faith in E. C. Hardy of Toano. In a letter which Mr. Hardy wrote to the editor of the GAZETTE he said, among other things, the following:

In Republies, the President's message is always expected to be an extraordinary document. But Cleveland is the greatest genius of all his predecessors, being the first one to ask congress to lessed the burden of tax on the people by lessening import duties in such a manner as to cripple a single American industry to the great advantage of Great Britain, and at the ame time does not recommend the abolishment of our internal revenue, whereby our own industries are taxed. Truly, London papers ought to boom Cleveland, and the Democratic press should work under the whip of its master. The common herd do not take to it kindly. If our treasury is over-burdened with money what is the present necessity of a revenue tax on whisky and tobacco, and a United States license for selling the same, and the pay of an army of revenue officers for its collection?

THE lead and copper forming the chief components of the cartridges manufactured in this country are each under control of a trust, which undertakes to see that the consuming public pays a good round profit chough to levy trust exactions upon the raw material of which cartridges are made, the cartridge manufacturers have been in a state of combination for five years. Under competition the price of "twenty-twe shorts," the basing unit of prices, was 60 cents per thousand. The first step of the combination was to advance prices to $1 par

Notwithstanding the lack of de-mand for other wools, the fine clips of Nevada, which are particularly suited to present wants of manu-facturers in this market, owing to their softness of finish, are inquired for to-day, and command retatively better prices than other territorial wools. The market has been cleared of these qualities, and much could be placed immediately at full quotations.

Among the messenger boys in the service of the first telegraph office opened in Pittsburg, Pa, years ago, were four known reectively as Andy, Bob, Billy and Harry. This quartette has won both fame and fortune. A FEARFUL EXPLOSION.

Defective Boiler Sends a Score of Persons Into Eteralty. VALLEJO, Feb. 27.—This morning there happened the most terrible fatality in the history of Vallejo. About ten minutes after six o'clock, just after the whistle had blown to signalize the departure of the steamer Julia from the South Vallejo wharf on her first trip, and before she had got loose from her moorings, a terrible explosion occurred, racking the vessel through its whole extent and filling the air with thick volumes of smoke.

The early trip takes all the work-men living on the Vallejo side to their work in various industries on the Contra Costa side; also those going to San Francisco, consequently a great many passengers were on board. The morning being cool, most of them had gathered about the warm smokestack in the lower cabin, and as the explosion came from the boiler these tention to mineral bearing ledges men were directly exposed to a terri-known to exist in the hills all bie shock. Besides this, the petroaround Carson, but aside from a leum used for fuel was scattered through the steamer, setting it on fire. There was terrible confusion and heartrending cries from the crushed and burning men. The force of the explosion is shown on a body that was dragged out of the wreck by Constable Longan without the head or limbs and utterly unrecog nizable. The burning steamer set fire to the wharf, and for hours the flames held sway until the boat was burned to the water's edge. As far as can be learned, eight or ten are killed or miss-ing, and many badly injured.

The steamer olew up at 6:10 this morning, and the loss of life is very heavy. It is believed by many that fully forty people were killed, but nothing definite will be ascertained for several days. Those who are well informed say that there were sixty-seven people on board at the tile of the accident, and only twenty-seven can be accounted for. The steamer used petroleum for fuel, and the dreadful disester was due to the explosion of one of the petroleum vats. The steamer was just leaving her moorings at South Vallejo, where the explosion occured, and a few minutes after she sank into the mud. The water now covers her upper deck, and all that can be seen of her is the flagstaffs. The whart caught fire and is still ourning, and the telegraph office is destroyed.

When the news of the disaster reached North Vallejo the fire department turned out, but was unable to do anything towards saving the wharf. The Starr flouring mills were also threatened with destruction, but luckily escaped. There was no water to combat the fire, and as the tide was out at the time, the engines were unable to go to work. Over six hundred feet of wharf was destroyed before the fire was got under control.

Another Account. WORST THAN FIRST REPORTED.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

The steamer Julia left Georgia street wharf at six o'clock this morning, and touched at South Vallejo wharf about ten minutes later. There were nearly seventy people on board, when she left her mooring, and many of them were going to work across the strait in the lamber yards around Vallejo junction. Just as the deck hands were hauling in the lines there was a loud explosion and a sheet of flame shot high into the air. Those who were on deck at the time were hurled overboard by the force of the explosion and several of them were killed outright by being struck by pieces of the debris, which were sent flying in all directions. The explosion attracted the attention of those who live in the vienity, and the men rushed to the assistance of the unfortunate passengers. In a few minutes all was continued in the light of the steament of the work in the light of the steament of the unfortunate passengers. In a few minutes all was continued in the light of the li

DENVER, Feb. 27 .- No little surprise was created here late last night by the arrest of Senator Tabor, proprietor of the Tabor Grand Opera House, and W. T. Carleton of the Carleton Opera Company, by order of Mayor Lee, charged with having violated a city charged with having violated a city ordinance by giving a sacred concert at the Opera House last night. A city ordinance prohibits the giving of a performance of any kind on Sunday night in which any acting is done, but makes no mention of concerts of sacred music. When Carleton advertised his concert for last night Mayor Lee notified him not to give it, but no attention was paid to the notice, hence the arrest. Carleton and his company left for Hastings last night, Senator Tabor going on his bond for his appearance. Mr. Tabor said to-day he would make a test case of the matter, even if he had to carry it to the highest court. Public sentiment is with the Mayor in his éndeaver to close all variety theaters on Sunday night, but corsiderable indignation is expressed, and social opinion is against him in his course towards Tabor.

The Local Newspaper.

The late Judge David Davis, a man of sound judgment and careman of sound judgment and careful determination, said: "Each year every local paper gives from $100 to $2,000 in free lines for the benefit of the community in which it is loc-ted. No other agency can or will do this. The local editor in proportion to his means, does more for his town than any other ten men, and he ought to be supported; not because you happen to like him or admir his writings but because a local paper is the best investment a community can make. It may not be briffiant, but financially it is m re of a benefit to a community than a teacher or preacher. Understand us now: We do not mean morally or intellectually, but financially, and yet on the moral question you will find the majority of the newspapers on the right side. To-day the editors of local papers do the most work for the least money of any men on earth. How necessary it must be for a town to have a good local paper, one that will work for the mass and not for individuals. A good newspaper shows up the town in which you are located; for if you want your town to grow you must add more people to the ame; you mant advertise for more stores and above and all manner of business, for it you do not the town is une to go diven. me Unpaintable Facts Presented for Our Citizens to Discuss.

Owing to lax quarantine regula-tions smallpox has at last made its appearance in Nevada and unless the greatest care is taken by the health authorities will undoubtedly spread throughout the State. At news Item, and it is left to the reader to decide whether the cleven additional cases exist at Mound yet real genius was both seen House or at Candelaria: "Four and heard, and there is certainly

It is stated that a traveler from Amador county, California, brought the disease to Candelaria, and it is the disease to Candelaria, and it is within the probabilities that the plague will soon make its appearance in other towns in western Nevada, as it is a notorious fact that scores of people from Sierra valley, where the epidemic raged for weeks, have visited not only Reno, but Carson and Virginiaearly and often, and at a time, too, when Sierra valley was supposed to be rigidly quarantined. A number of residents of that valley have seen in Reno during the past six weeks, transacting business and mingling with our people, and if our town is not subjected to a siege of the scourge it can be attributed to the fact that Providence is dealing kindly with us.

the fact that Providence is dealing kindly with us.

It is safe to say that no town on the coast offers better inducements for an epidemic than does Reno at the present time. Our water works are in a deplorable condition, the out-houses and patent closets reek with filth, our sewers are choked up, and our alleys are used as dumping grounds for swill and garbage. All this means that something should be done at once to cleanse the town of its accumulation of filth, and as determined a stand as possible made against the encroachment of disease. Let an epidemic gain any headway against the encroach ment of disease. Let an epidemic gain any headway here, and the busiest man in town will be the undertaker. We cannot afford to take any chances, as smallpox is no respector of persons and places, and Reno may be the next to display the yellow flag. Action, prompt action, is needed.

SOUTHWESTERN NEVADA.

A Section of Country Whose Po sibilities are Great.

Mr. N. Westcoatt, a resident of Candelaria, bas written a letter to the Salt Lake Tribune, in which he gives the following information in regard to railroad matters and mines of southwestern Nevada, which is of interest to residents of the two piaces, as the railroad would have to be built, from the best information I can get, would be about 160 miles, and I think the rad will be constructed between the two points the coming summer. "I bave just returned from that country (private conveyance) by way or the State Line mine, Lida valley, Silver Peak mines, Columbus, etc., and find the people are much interested in regard to the route the Salt Lake City and Los Augeles railroad will take, and what mining points in Nevada it will intersect. The gold mines at the state line and Silver Peak are very large, from 6 to 40 feet wide. very large, from 6 to 40 feet wide, and can be traced by the cropping for thousands of feet. At silver Peak there is a quartz mill of 10 stamps running on gold rock. At the State Line mine there is a 40-temps rold control to the state Line mine there is a 40-temps rold control to the state Line mine there is a 40-temps rold control mill the best in state Line mine there is a 40stamp gold quartz mill, the best in The great drawback to all that country is the co-t and inconvenience of getting in and out, and last, but not least, the cost of freights, the rate of which per ton from San Francisco by way of the Central Pacific, Virginia & Truckee and Carson & Colorado raitroads to this place is $60, and then the cost per ton from this place to the State Line mine, 85 miles, is $40 more, making a total of $160 per ton. And then the time necessary for transportation makes it impractical to transact business in the mining department on a paying basis. A railroad through that country that did not conduct business on the basis of stand and deliver would do a power of good."

Where all did so well it would scarcely be just to mention a few, House or at Candelaria: "Four cases of smallpox are reported at Pickhandle Gulch, the Nob Hill of Candelaria. The establishing of a quarantine at Mound House for passengers arriving by the C. & C. railroad is suggested. Passengers arriving last evening say eleven cases are reported there."

The suggestion that a quarantine be established at Mound House, while if such were done would no doubt be productive of some good, would not be as effectual as if a quarantine was established further south—say at Luning, thirty-three miles from Candelaria. By establishing a rigid quarantine at that point the dread disease could be held in check at the place in which it originated, and other places on the line of the railroad between Mound House and Candelaria would te, in a measure, safe from a visitation.

Attorney Haydon for illegally cutting wood on government land. The wood which they are accused of illegally appropriating is on mineral land, and is used principally in the mines and mills, although considerable has been sold in the county for domestic purposes. The so-called timber consists of juniper and scrubby nut pine and is totally unfit for any purpose other than fuel, and the cutting off of the supply through the intervention of U. S. AYER'S PILLS

Pacers Coming Up.

we cannot agree with General Tracy in his denunciation of the pacer. They are not so useless as he claims. There was a time when sidewheelers were in favor as roadhorses, and in all, or nearly all, of the southern cities forty years ago, the favorite road-horses. As well say that a racing gallop is of no practical use, or that anything but a sedate cob is out of place on the road, as that pacers were created without any resulting benefit. Thea, if stallions are to receive a backset for getting an animal which is fast at the diagonal movement, there will be general iconclasm among the vaunted trotting sires. The despised pacer Blue Bull is within one step of the topmost round of the ladder when measured by numbers in the list and pacing ancestry on both sides has done a good deal to give prominence to the "American trotter." Give them all their just due, gallopers, pacers and trotters, and also bear in mind that though there may be overshadowing merit in some families, there are good animals in all. We will agree in the proposition that the less weight carried on the feet so much the better. But are not toe weights. heavy shoes, etc., more the result of human ignorance than a lack of inherited freedom from the incumbrance?

Range Cattle Investments. Ten years ago, says the Drovers' Journal, the ranch business was beginning to attract considerable attention. There were open ranges in every direction, even in the native state of the original long-horn and Texas cattle still had long horns ten years ago. About that time far-sighted cattlemen began to stock up and secure good locations. The business continued to improve; investors soon began to roll up big bank accounts. Men who had held down bucking cow ponies and lived on sow-belly soon became quarter and half millionaires, so to speak; wore brilliant stones in their shirt fronts and on their fingers, and lived in town, putting in part of their time carousing and part in hunting up greenhorn investors. Perhaps if they had stuck to the ponies and the sow-belly, done more work on the range and less on paper and in town, the reaction which was inevitable would not have been so disastrous. But over five years ago the very crest of the boom was reached and then came the break; at first gentle, but increasing in rapidity as the great boom bubble neared the bottom, which it struck the past year. Were these wrecks? Yes, many of them, and some very large ones, but considering the amount of money involved and the terrible shrinkage in values, the number of wrecks has really been small. No man who owns a cow can ford to have her afraid of him, for it is a loss to the owner every time the cow is in any way frightened; while to run a cow to pasture is like throwing money away. The cow is simply a milk making machine and should be kept in the best working condition, and for her this condition is one of quiet. A cow that is in any way worried will not de her best. Make pets of your cows and they will make meney for you.
